

To allow radio and TV station to be exempt from this law would be needless and stupid. I don't even understand the rational behind the proposal. Are you suggesting that somebody calling me to encourage me to listen to their broadcast isn't a sales call. Of course it is! They aren't doing it to be philanthropic. Please don't allow this gaping loophole to exist in an otherwise good law.